The Accountant Information Market

A Year In Review!

Events Hosted In 2012

The purpose of The Accountant Information Market is to give back to the accounting community in terms of value in service to CPAs and their clients. We also sponsor programs to support the accounting profession through CPE classes, business introductions and networking events.

Our membership includes professionals in highly specialized fields who bring value to CPAs and their clients. Members also introduce others in their chapters to CPAs with whom they have worked.

It is our mission to bring together business and accounting communities, focusing on our motto,

"Meeting People Who Count"
